Other News.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., July 27.

At the regular service last night Rev. W. C. Taylor, D. D., formally tendered to the congregation his resignation as pastor of the First Baptist Church. No action was taken except to appoint an advisory committee to consider and report on the resignation.
Dr. Taylor made no reference to his future charge, but stated that calls were open to him. He desires his resignation to take effect by September 1, or at least by October 1. It is understood that he will go to Clarkburg, W. Va.

Death of Venerable Woman.
Mrs. Margaret Gerecke, widow of Charles Gerecke, died this morning at her home on the Dupuy Road, in Din-widdle county, near this city. She was in her eighty-second year and was a native of Germany, but had been living here since 1856. She is survived by five sons and two daughters—Richard Gerecke and Mrs. Caroline V. Dickerson, of Newport News; Robert H. Otto V., Charles W., Julius E. and Miss Emma Gerecke, all of Dinwiddle county.

Robbery at Disputanta.
Thieves last night broke into the barber shop and poolroom at Disputanta, operated by H. E. Haley, effecting an entrance through the windows. The barber apartment was swept clean of nearly everything except the furniture. Thirty razors were stolen, and all the strops and hair-cutting shears. From the poolroom a full set of balls was taken. There is no clue to the identity of the thieves or as to the course they took. The robbery was probably committed by strangers.

Colored Odd-Fellows to Meet.
The Grand Lodge of Colored Odd-Fellows of Virginia will meet in the Ebenezer Baptist Church, in this city, on September 3, and will be in session several days. The meeting will bring together a large gathering of members and friends of the order, which, like the Knights of Pythias, is very strong in this State. Arrangements are being made for the reception and entertainment of the visitors by the local lodges, and a banquet will follow the close of the session.

Distinguished Guests Expected.
Among the prominent guests expected at the unveiling in Blandford Church on Sunday afternoon of the bronze tablet to the memory of the 115 men of Mahone's Brigade who fell in the Crater charge on July 30, 1864, are Colonel William H. Stewart, of Portsmouth, commander of the old Sixty-first Virginia Regiment, and chief of the Crater Legion; Governor William Hodges Mann and his chief of staff, Colonel A. D. Hamilton; Grand Commander Whitfield, of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of Virginia, and his chief of staff, Colonel Hidgood, of Richmond.

Philanthropic Case.
William Ballard, a white man, was last evening adjudged insane by a commission and ordered committed to the hospital at Williamsburg. Ballard has a wife and three children dependent on his labor for their support. The family recently came to Petersburg from South Carolina, where the husband obtained work and was getting on well until his mind gave away, and his condition became such that it was necessary to send him to the hospital.
Through the kindness of the Salvation Army, the wife and children will be returned to their former home in South Carolina. Pellagra is assigned as one of the causes of insanity.

To Dissolve Injunction.
Judge Mullen, of the Hastings Court, has been engaged all day in hearing argument on a motion to dissolve the injunction granted a week ago by Judge J. F. West, of Sussex, restrain-

SHOW AT MANASSAS IS BEST EVER HELD

From Standpoint of Attendance and Classy Entries, Exhibition Proves Great Success.

Summaries of Day's Events.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Manassas, Va., July 27.—One of the greatest open air horse shows in Virginia is annually held at Manassas, as it fully demonstrated in the seventeenth annual exhibition of the Prince William Horse Show Company, which closed here to-day. Since it was organized, seventeen years ago, this association has never had an exhibition which had met with as much success, both from a standpoint of attendance and exhibits shown, as the one just closed. Six thousand or more people were on the grounds to-day. The spacious grandstand was taxed to its utmost capacity, and after the recess hour no tickets could be obtained, except for standing room. Twenty-one classes were judged and three races run. That interest in horses has not abated in Virginia was evidenced by the tremendous shouts of applause that continually went up from the grandstand, when the prizes were awarded in the classy events of the day. Mrs.
Allen Potts, of Gordonsville; Lee Hechinger, of Washington, D. C.; Bowles brothers, Millwood; W. B. Bullock, Manassas; and Miss Amy Dupont, Wilmington, Delaware, came in to-day for a goodly share of the prizes. Although the day broke the record for attendance at the show, perfect order was maintained on the grounds, and no serious accidents happened.

George Harris, of Fairfax county, got a nasty fall in the steeplechase.
His mount fell at one of the jumps, striking Harris heavily to the ground.
He was taken from the course in an unconscious condition, was soon revived, and it was ascertained that he had not sustained serious injury.

Meacham Goldfinger, an imported hobby stallion, owned by W. B. Bullock, Manassas, easily carried off the first honors in class 47 for registered hackneys in harness, winning a handsome sterling silver cup, donated by the business men of Manassas. This is the most perfect type of a hackney horse ever exhibited here. In class 34, for Prince William saddle horses, the cup presented by the New Warren Green Hotel, Warrenton, was won by Miss Clara Free's entry, Virginia B.
The harness classes were especially attractive, the entries of Mrs. Allen Potts, Miss Amy Dupont and Lee Hechinger being the favorites, and taking the majority of the awards.
